I.

STATEMENT OF FACTS¹

Agents of the United States Border Patrol arrested Mr. Gallardo-Vallecillo on April 11, 2008, near Tecate, California. Mr. Gallardo-Vallecillo was initially questioned without being given Miranda warnings. Then, Mr. Gallardo-Vallecillo was advised that his Administrative Rights would no longer apply because he was being charged criminally. Mr. Gallardo-Vallecillo was then advised of his Miranda rights and questioned again.

On May 8, 2008, Mr. Gallardo-Vallecillo was arraigned on an indictment alleging a violation of 8 U.S.C. §1326, specifically deported alien found in the United States.

¹ This statement of facts is based on the complaint and indictment filed by the government and the discovery provided by the government. Mr. Gallardo-Vallecillo does not accept this statement as his own, and reserves the right to take a contrary position at motion hearings and trial. Additionally, Mr. Gallardo-Vallecillo reserves the right to challenge the truth and accuracy of these facts in any subsequent pleadings or during any further proceedings.

To date, counsel for Mr. Gallardo-Vallecillo has received some discovery and a DVD. Counsel has not yet had the opportunity to review Mr. Gallardo-Vallecillo's immigration file or received any recordings of his removal proceedings. These motions follow.

II.

MOTION TO COMPEL DISCOVERY/PRESERVE EVIDENCE

Mr. Gallardo-Vallecillo moves for the production of the following discovery. This request is not limited to those items that the prosecutor knows of, but rather includes all discovery listed below that is in the custody, control, care, or knowledge of any "closely connected investigative [or other] agencies." See United States v. Bryan, 868 F.2d 1032 (9th Cir.), cert. denied, 493 U.S. 858 (1989).

(1) The Defendant's Statements. The Government must disclose to the defendant all copies of any written or recorded statements made by the defendant; the substance of any statements made by the defendant which the Government intends to offer in evidence at trial; any response by the defendant to interrogation; the substance of any oral statements which the Government intends to introduce at trial and any written summaries of the defendant's oral statements contained in the handwritten notes of the Government agent; any response to any Miranda warnings which may have been given to the defendant; as well as any other statements by the defendant. Fed. R. Crim. P. 16(a)(1)(A). The Advisory Committee Notes and the 1991 amendments to Rule 16 make clear that the Government must reveal all the defendant's statements, whether oral or written, regardless of whether the government intends to make any use of those statements.

(2) Arrest Reports, Notes and Dispatch Tapes. The defendant also specifically requests the Government to turn over all arrest reports, notes, dispatch or any other tapes, and TECS records that relate to the circumstances surrounding his arrest or any questioning. This request includes, but is not limited to, any rough notes, records, reports, transcripts or other documents in which statements of the defendant or any other discoverable material is contained. Such material is discoverable under Fed. R. Crim. P. 16(a)(1)(A) and Brady v. Maryland, 373 U.S. 83 (1963). The Government must produce arrest reports, investigator's notes, memos from arresting officers, dispatch tapes, sworn statements, and prosecution reports pertaining to the defendant. See Fed. R. Crim. P. 16(a)(1)(B) and (C), Fed. R. Crim. P. 26.2 and 12(I).

(3) Brady Material. The defendant requests all documents, statements, agents' reports, and tangible evidence favorable to the defendant on the issue of guilt and/or which affects the credibility of the Government's case. Under Brady, impeachment as well as exculpatory evidence falls within the definition of evidence favorable to the accused. United States v. Bagley, 473 U.S. 667 (1985); United States v. Agurs, 427 U.S. 97 (1976).

(4) Any Information That May Result in a Lower Sentence Under The Guidelines. The Government must produce this information under Brady v. Maryland, 373 U.S. 83 (1963). This request includes any cooperation or attempted cooperation by the defendant as well as any information that could affect any base offense level or specific offense characteristic under Chapter Two of the Guidelines. The defendant also requests any information relevant to a Chapter Three adjustment, a determination of the defendant's criminal history, and information relevant to any other application of the Guidelines.

(5) The Defendant's Prior Record. The defendant requests disclosure of his prior record. Fed. R. Crim. P. 16(a)(1)(B).

(6) Any Proposed 404(b) Evidence. The government must produce evidence of prior similar acts under Fed. R. Crim. P. 16(a)(1)(C) and Fed. R. Evid. 404(b) and 609. In addition, under Rule 404(b), "upon request of the accused, the prosecution . . . shall provide reasonable notice in advance of trial . . . of the general nature . . ." of any evidence the government proposes to introduce under Fed. R. Evid. 404(B) at trial. The defendant requests that such notice be given three (3) weeks before trial in order to give the defense time to adequately investigate and prepare for trial.

(7) Evidence Seized. The defendant requests production of evidence seized as a result of any search, either warrantless or with a warrant. Fed. R. Crim. P. 16(a)(1)(C).

(8) Request for Preservation of Evidence. The defendant specifically requests the preservation of all dispatch tapes or any other physical evidence that may be destroyed, lost, or otherwise put out of the possession, custody, or care of the Government and which relate to the arrest or the events leading to the arrest in this case.

(9) Tangible Objects. The defendant requests the opportunity to inspect and copy as well as test, if necessary, all other documents and tangible objects, including photographs, books, papers, documents, fingerprint analyses, vehicles, or copies of portions thereof, which are material to the defense or intended for use in the Government's case-in-chief or were obtained from or belong to the defendant. Fed. R. Crim. P. 16(a)(2)(c). Specifically, the defendant requests to view the A-File.

1 (10) Evidence of Bias or Motive to Lie. The defendant requests any evidence that any prospective
2 Government witness is biased or prejudiced against the defendant, or has a motive to falsify or distort his or
3 her testimony.

4 (11) Impeachment Evidence. The defendant requests any evidence that any prospective Government
5 witness has engaged in any criminal act whether or not resulting in a conviction and whether any witness has
6 made a statement favorable to the defendant. See Fed R. Evid. 608, 609 and 613; Brady v. Maryland, supra.

7 (12) Evidence of Criminal Investigation of Any Government Witness. The defendant requests any 8 evidence that any prospective witness is under investigation by federal, state or local authorities for any 9 criminal conduct.

10 (13) Evidence Affecting Perception, Recollection, Ability to Communicate, or Truth Telling. The 11 defense requests any evidence, including any medical or psychiatric report or evaluation, that tends to show
12 that any prospective witness' ability to perceive, remember, communicate, or tell the truth is impaired, and
13 any evidence that a witness has ever used narcotics or other controlled substance, or has ever been an 14 alcoholic.

15 (14) Witness Addresses. The defendant requests the name and last known address of each 16 prospective Government witness. The defendant also requests the name and last known address of every 17 witness to the crime or crimes charged (or any of the overt acts committed in furtherance thereof) who will
18 not be called as a Government witness.

19 (15) Name of Witnesses Favorable to the Defendant. The defendant requests the name of any
20 witness who made an arguably favorable statement concerning the defendant or who could not identify him
21 or who was unsure of his identity, or participation in the crime charged.

22 (16) Statements Relevant to the Defense. The defendant requests disclosure of any statement
23 relevant to any possible defense or contention that he might assert.

24 (17) Jencks Act Material. The defendant requests production in advance of trial of all material,
25 including dispatch tapes, which the government must produce pursuant to the Jencks Act, 18 U.S.C. § 3500.
26 Advance production will avoid the possibility of delay at the request of defendant to investigate the Jencks
27 material. A verbal acknowledgment that "rough" notes constitute an accurate account of the witness'
28 interview is sufficient for the report or notes to qualify as a statement under § 3500(e)(1). Campbell v. United

1 States, 373 U.S. 487, 490-92 (1963). In United States v. Boshell, 952 F.2d 1101 (9th Cir. 1991) the Ninth
 2 Circuit held that when an agent goes over interview notes with the subject of the interview the notes are then
 3 subject to the Jencks Act.

4 (18) Giglio Information. Pursuant to Giglio v. United States, 405 U.S. 150 (1972), the defendant
 5 requests all statements and/or promises, express or implied, made to any Government witnesses, in exchange
 6 for their testimony in this case, and all other information which could arguably be used for the impeachment
 7 of any Government witnesses.

8 (19) Agreements Between the Government and Witnesses. The defendant requests discovery
 9 regarding any express or implicit promise, understanding, offer of immunity, of past, present, or future
 10 compensation, or any other kind of agreement or understanding, including any implicit understanding relating
 11 to criminal or civil income tax, forfeiture or fine liability, between any prospective Government witness and 12 the Government (federal, state and/or local). This request also includes any discussion with a potential
 13 witness about or advice concerning any contemplated prosecution, or any possible plea bargain, even if no
 14 bargain was made, or the advice not followed.

15 (20) Informants and Cooperating Witnesses. The defendant requests disclosure of the names and 16 addresses of all informants or cooperating witnesses used or to be used in this case, and in particular,
 17 disclosure of any informant who was a percipient witness in this case or otherwise participated in the crime
 18 charged against Mr. Gallardo-Vallecillo. The Government must disclose the informant's identity and location,
 19 as well as disclose the existence of any other percipient witness unknown or unknowable to the defense.
 20 Roviaro v. United States, 353 U.S. 53, 61-62 (1957). The Government must disclose any information derived
 21 from informants which exculpates or tends to exculpate the defendant.

22 (21) Bias by Informants or Cooperating Witnesses. The defendant requests disclosure of any 23 information indicating bias on the part of any informant or cooperating witness. Giglio v. United States, 405
 24 U.S. 150 (1972). Such information would include what, if any, inducements, favors, payments or threats were 25 made to the witness to secure cooperation with the authorities.

26 (22) Government Examination of Law Enforcement Personnel Files. Mr. Gallardo-Vallecillo
 27 requests that the Government examine the personnel files and any other files within its custody, care or
 28 control, or which could be obtained by the government, for all testifying witnesses, including testifying

1 officers. Mr. Gallardo-Vallecillo requests that these files be reviewed by the Government attorney for
2 evidence of perjurious conduct or other like dishonesty, or any other material relevant to impeachment, or any
3 information that is exculpatory, pursuant to its duty under United States v. Henthorn, 931 F.2d 29 (9th Cir.
4 1991). The obligation to examine files arises by virtue of the defense making a demand for their review: the
5 Ninth Circuit in Henthorn remanded for in camera review of the agents' files because the government failed
6 to examine the files of agents who testified at trial. This Court should therefore order the Government to 7 review all such files for all testifying witnesses and turn over any material relevant to impeachment or that
8 is exculpatory to Mr. Gallardo-Vallecillo prior to trial. Mr. Gallardo-Vallecillo specifically requests that the 9 prosecutor, not the law enforcement officers, review the files in this case. The duty to review the files, under 10 Henthorn, should be the prosecutor's. Only the prosecutor has the legal knowledge and ethical obligations
11 to fully comply with this request.

12 (23) Expert Summaries. Defendant requests written summaries of all expert testimony that the 13 government intends to present under Federal Rules of Evidence 702, 703 or 705 during its case in chief,
14 written summaries of the bases for each expert's opinion, and written summaries of the experts' qualifications.
15 Fed. R. Crim. P. 16(a)(1)(E). This request includes, but is not limited to, fingerprint expert testimony.

16 (24) Residual Request. Mr. Gallardo-Vallecillo intends by this discovery motion to invoke his rights
17 to discovery to the fullest extent possible under the Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure and the Constitution
18 and laws of the United States. This request specifically includes all subsections of Rule 16. Mr. Gallardo-
19 Vallecillo requests that the Government provide him and his attorney with the above requested material
20 sufficiently in advance of trial to avoid unnecessary delay prior to cross-examination.

21 III.

22 REQUEST FOR LEAVE TO FILE FURTHER MOTIONS

23 Mr. Gallardo-Vallecillo and defense counsel have not received all the discovery in this case. As new 24 information comes to light, the defense may find it necessary to file further motions. Therefore, defense
25 counsel requests the opportunity to file further motions based upon information gained from any further
26 discovery.

IV.

CONCLUSION

For the reasons stated above, Mr. Gallardo-Vallecillo respectfully requests that this Court grant the foregoing motions.

Respectfully Submitted,
